

Privacy Policy

When you subscribe with International AllergoOncology Symposium under our "Registration" area, your contact information (including your name, address and e-mail address) is added to our mailing list so that, from time to time, we can send you information about new events and exhibitions. We only use credit card or payment information we acquire from you to fulfill your subscription and/or order. All information is stored in a secure database in Vienna/Austria and access is limited to authorized persons.

How are cookies used on the International AllergoOncology Symposium site?

The International AllergoOncology Symposium website uses permanent cookies to recognize you and enable an automatic log-in to the site. We also provide session cookies that grant you certain access privileges, such as access to protected content. We use permanent cookies to customize the edition of the site you wish to view as well as to track aggregate site usage and statistics.

Please be assured that we take your concerns about privacy quite seriously, and we intend to take every reasonable effort to protect it.

For questions, comments, or to review or correct your information, please contact the organisation office.

Thank You!
